

FIRE DEPT. STARTS ON and MOVIE

The Albany Fire Department this week started filming their second movie designed to educate the public on fire prevention.

Entitled "I Am a Fireman," the motion picture will be filmed on 16 millimeter color film under the direction of Chief Fred Pimental. A running narration is given by George Browne while Richard McNeely and Paul Hogue grind away the cameras. A special committee of firemen have written the story and all the actors are members of the department.

To add realism, sequences filmed in actual fires will be featured. When completed, in about two months, the movie will total 1400 feet, and will be shown to schools, fire clubs and fraternal organizations. Last year the firemen produced a film "Fire Plays No Favorites," shown before 4000 persons it aroused a great deal of interest in fire prevention and the work of the fire group.

The Albany Fire Department is the only known fire fighting organization in Northern California to produce its own film on fire prevention.

THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER

I was many men and had many names. I was the tired, dirty infantryman who died in the mud and snow of France and Germany. I was the airman who felt the cold hand of death high above the earth squeezing out the life I loved. I was the sailor drifting amid wreckage on the empty, pitiless ocean. I was the Marine whose blood flowed into that of my enemy on the ashly soil of Iwo Jima.

I came from the cities and villages of America and knew for a few brief years the joy of life. Then, like my father, I died defending the one thing I knew was worth living for—the freedom of mankind.

This is the day on which you will remember me. You will place a wreath upon my grave and ponder upon the things for which I died. But what of tomorrow? Will you turn from my grave back to the hates, fear and wants against which I spent my young strength? Or will you work and pray that I shall not have died in vain?

This message I send you from my cold, lonely grave. Tell the things for which I died to your children that they may not fall victim to the same evil disease which snuffed my life. Bring peace to this world which I found so good and bright. Then may I rest, knowing that I have been remembered.

LEGION POST 292 WILL HONOR COMRADES TODAY

MORGAN'S MEANDERINGS

By M. S. T.

The squeeze is growing tighter every week on the newspaper shortage. Like all other papers, the Times is grimly hanging on and hoping for the best. That accounts for the crowded condition of page one on times such as these.

Looking for some place to spend Memorial Day? Why not right here in Albany. The Recreation Department has a good program lined up for dedication of the newly turfed playground in Codornices Village. There will be a picnic, ball games and horseshoe pitchin'.

Albany teachers have won an Okeh for that much needed pay raise. The good news came from a meeting of the school board Tuesday. More on that next week.

Frances McLane has been promoted to charge of field work for the Meni-Ketti Music Co. G. A. Jones will take over her job as manager of the Albany branch of the popular music store.

Seen through the office window: A young squirt making a javelin of one of Jack O'Leary's signs proclaiming the city's intention to destroy weeds. . . . The answer to where Chief Williams gets the cement for that barbecue pit he is building at home, Puttys, puttys, Chief. . . . A little boy about six years young struggling to carry a knocked-down crate bigger than himself. . . . The warm, sunlight beating down causing Morgan to write thirty to this column and meander off.

Albany Post 292 Wins Opener in Legion's 1947 Junior League

Albany Post 292, American Legion, fairly hurled Piedmont Post 541 out of Memorial Park last Saturday when they defeated the visitors 9-3 to open the Legion Junior Baseball League.

Pitcher Billy Castell led Post 292 to victory behind his three hit pitching and strike-out of 14 Piedmont hopefuls. Short stop Lautes also shone with 4 for 5 including a triple and Castell had his turn at glory again with another triple. Left fielder Grasser had a good day with some excellent fielding.

Tomorrow the Legion Juniors meet Berkeley at James Kenny Park, 2 p. m. and on Sunday they tangle with Oakland here in Albany.

In keeping with past tradition, Albany Post 292, American Legion, will participate in the Memorial Day exercises at Sunset Cemetery with Chaplain William Price as the Post chairman for the day. Members of the Post and all veterans of the city are invited to attend the services starting at 11 a. m. at the cemetery flagpole.

The resting places of deceased members of Albany Post in Sunset Cemetery and Mausoleum will be decorated by the Post Chaplain with the aid of past chaplains. At the request of the local post graves of Albany members in the San Bruno National Cemetery will be decorated by the San Mateo Veterans of the 40 & 8.

Following the rites, the newly installed officers will be hosts at a dance followed by a buffet lunch in the Aerie buffet room.

Pre-School Groups to See Parent Education Movies at Cornell

The Albany Evening School will present two parent education movies on May 29 at 8 p. m. in the Cornell School Auditorium, 919 Cornell Ave. The films are entitled "Life With Baby" and "This Is Robert." They are sponsored by the Albany Pre-School Mothers' Club in conjunction with the Council of Cooperative Pre-School Centers.

Following the films George Cheviakov, psychologist from the San Francisco Teachers College will lead a discussion. The public is invited to attend the pictures and no admission will be charged.

Why Suffer . . .

By traveling many miles in crowded public carriers to purchase your groceries when you can buy them at a great saving right here in Albany? Maybe you think that you are beating the game by driving your car ten or twelve miles each way to buy merchandise. What does the fuel cost for such a trip? How about that parking problem? In Albany you can make the purchase in "Jig Time," find adequate parking facilities and return home without a case of jitters from bucking traffic.

It takes only a little figuring with pencil and paper to find the true answer on how you save money buying at home. If it is a new suit of clothes or a new pair of shoes you need, you certainly can secure the latest styles and high quality merchandise right here in Albany. Your Albany pharmacist is qualified to fill that prescription and any local optometrist can render just as efficient service as you would find anywhere.

There is so much talk these days about the future value of a dollar. If you have a few dollars in the future for spending you will be one of the lucky ones. To get those dollars start saving right now by patronizing Albany stores. Remember, Albany merchants and professional men help pay taxes the same as you. They are civic minded leaders and depend on your patronage to make Albany a better city.
